Dear Senator,

On the above date I contacted the Central Intelligence Agency, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the United States Government Printing Office in order to obtain any information available to the public concerning the topic of detecting clandestine transmitters and illegal wiretaps.

It would be greatly appreciated if your office could confirm that no publications are available from the Central Intelligence Agency. Should there be any other agencies that have publications available that I have not already contacted, I would appreciate it if your office could inform me of these agencies.

Thank-you very much for anything which you might be able to do. Thank-you for doing such a fine job in Washington, also.

Respectfully yours,
